New Staff at NWNW

Meet Alison Wallisch, AmeriCorps Neighborhood
Clean-Up Coordinator

Prior to joining NWNW, I worked for several environmental non-profits in Portland, Florida, and Berkeley and obtained a degree in Politics and Environmental Studies from Whitman College. As an active member of the Parks and Open Space Committee of my neighborhood association in California, I developed an appreciation for the positive changes neighbors can make when they act together and have pride in their community.

My goal is to support and strengthen neighborhood clean ups in inner Southwest and Northwest Portland so they are more environmentally sustainable and diverse. I'd love to talk with neighbors who are interested in local environmental issues and in developing ways to improve their neighborhoods.
Please contact me with your ideas at alison@nwnw.org or 503-823-4265.
